

Taking Christ's Light to Campus

Chapel's Reach Around the World...

"Proclaim among the nations what the Lord has done!" Psalm 9

Japan, China, Korea, Taiwan, Honduras and USA attend Chapel's 29th IVBS

Nearly 100 children and adults heard of Jesus' love for them at Chapel's 29th International Vacation Bible School held August 1-5, 2011.

With over 4000 students from over 130 countries at UW-Madison, we have the opportunity to bring Jesus to people from virtually "every nation, tribe, people, and language" (Revelation 7). During the school year Chapel serves more than 150 internationals each week through: International luncheons, Baking and Bible classes, Sunday School, English as a Second Language (ESL) classes, ESL Bible Classes and Saturdays for Kids.

Six nations were represented in the Kindergarten class.

Classes for adults were also available at IVBS.

Brazilian Couple Thanks Chapel

Dr. Rennelson and Maria Sampaio from Salvador, Brazil extend their thanks to the Chapel family for being able to worship with us for the past 9 months of Rennelson's research as a visiting fellow at UW. They remain in our prayers and hearts.

Sharing Jesus in Asia

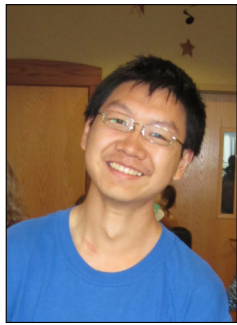

Since 2002, Chapel's International Ministry Coordinator Cari Larsen has taught ESL to hundreds of Madison international students and their spouses. This summer Cari, at her own expense, spent six weeks visiting 64 of her former students in their home countries of China, Taiwan, Japan and Korea. There she saw the fruits of the Chapel's International Ministry. "They were so happy to recall their time in Madison, and they showered me with kindness and hospitality. Now several are conducting Bible studies in their homes using materials we send from Chapel."

From China to Chapel to MLC

The only student from mainland China at Martin Luther College (MLC) this fall is DeYi, a young man who came to know and believe in Jesus two years ago at the Chapel. He really loves calculus but will also be studying Greek at MLC with an eye on possibly becoming a pastor.

Welcome Madison Students!

UW-Madison students come from all over the country and the world. Join us at Chapel's September welcome events: BBQ Blastoff on Wednesday, the 7th at 6pm, Wii Festival (for freshmen only) on Friday, the 9th at 6pm, Bucky and Brats on Sunday the 11th from 1-3pm (take a picture with Bucky Badger from 1:30-2pm), and Eat Your Way Through the Chapel Open House on Wednesday the 14th from 5:30-9pm.

Prayers for 2nd Pastor

Chapel will be calling again for a second campus pastor. He will focus on expanding Chapel's outreach and education opportunities for both American and international college students — to help them know Jesus and to grow deeper in His Word. "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" (Romans 10:15)

All Sizes Served at Chapel

Kevin Zeitler, a Wisconsin Lutheran High School alum from Waukesha, is a starting offensive lineman for the UW football team. He also worships regularly at the Chapel. Pastor Trapp feels blessed to bring Jesus to students of all sizes.
