

Taking Christ's Light to Campus

Wisconsin Lutheran Chapel (UW-Madison)

Thanksgiving 2016

Invest to Proclaim God's Grace

"Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established." (Proverbs 16:3)

Why We Invest in the Chapel

It was an extraordinary blessing to have a place to strengthen our faith and to spend time growing with others who shared our common beliefs while we were living on a campus that was hostile to the truth of God. The world wants to extinguish faith in Christ, but the Chapel is that refuge where God's Word is preached boldly. With the financial challenges that go along with attending college, it is impossible for the current students to support this essential ministry on their own. We both experienced the blessings the Chapel has to offer, so every year as we prayerfully plan our giving, our gratefulness for the Chapel in our own lives continues to motivate us to support this ministry for the next generation.

Investing our Time to Serve

"For just as we have many members in one body and all the members do not have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ." (Romans 12: 4-5)

The church is not a building, but a body of believers who build each other up, reach out to the lost, and serve others. The Chapel is blessed to be served by many volunteers like conversation partners who meet with international students to help them practice their English language skills. Or audio/visual volunteers who allow our worship messages to reach out with the gospel to a much wider audience through the internet. Thanks to our Welcome Desk volunteers, everyone that walks in the front door is greeted with a friendly smile. And all students have an opportunity to worship, fellowship and study in a safe and nurturing space thanks to our kitchen and properties volunteers. Students develop skills for service in their future congregations by participating in many of these volunteer roles.

Whether it's playing a musical instrument, teaching Sunday School, coordinating a Life Group or offering financial support, together WE are the church.

SYLLABUS - Living Your Faith 101 - One Chapel Student's Most Important Class

Course Objectives:

"Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:18)

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." (Matthew 5:16)

Grading:

Students are expected to live a perfect life without sin or evil intent. Additionally, love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, and gentleness should be evident in the student's life. Final course grade will be on a pass/fail basis and determined as the instructor sees fit on the final day of instruction. (See extra notes from the instructor)

Readings:

Holy Bible - Mandatory Text - Read every day!!

Extra Notes from the Instructor:

You will fail this course if you try to do it on your own. I have sent a substitute to take the course in your place, and he has done it perfectly. Know that he loves you and replicate the love that he has shown you outward onto everyone whom you encounter. Come to me if you ever feel the load is too much, or if you simply need someone to listen. I love you, and you are my child.

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

Chapel Homecoming Weekend

Enjoy fun, fellowship and food in-between the services on Sunday, November 13th celebrating UW's Homecoming victory! Our services will include special student stories of their Badger Chapel experience. In addition, if you come for the game on Saturday, November 12th, you can park at Chapel and take a tour of our building!

A Special Message

Thank you! Your investments of time, dollars, advice and prayers proclaim God's grace here at Chapel. You feed the students, equip the technology needed for worship, purchase the music, provide the Bibles, print the bulletins, host the events, provide upkeep for our building and welcome all. Thank you!
